

Plot 43b, Brent Cross, London Student Accommodation

Plot 43b, Brent Cross Town, London is a new student accommodation building delivered with Fusion Group, offering 658 purpose-built rooms, including accessible units, with dining halls, cafés, study areas, communal spaces, a fitness facility, and nearly 500 cycle spaces.

Built to Building Safety Regulations (BSR), it includes robust fire safety and quality assurance measures, delivering a safe, modern, and vibrant home for students. The building is designed to support both academic success and student wellbeing through thoughtfully planned private and shared spaces.

CLIENT

Fusion BXT Devco Ltd

ARCHITECT

Glenn Howells Architects

VALUE

£79 million

