

Client Name :
Johnstown House

Architect:
Atlam Design Partnership

Quantity Surveyor:
JJ Rhatigan & Company (In House)

Duration:
March 2005 - October 2005

Contract Value:
£3.2m

New Spa Facilities at Johnstown House Hotel Enfield, Meath

Description

This facility, over two floors consists of Treatment Rooms, Relaxation Rooms, Aerobic Rooms, Pillates Rooms, Activity Rooms, including Climbing Walls, Simulated Driving Range, Hair Salon, Crèche, Gymnasium, complete with full Swimming Pool, Sauna, Steam Room, Coffee Deck and Retail areas. It includes Marble Stressed Timber Floors, Mosaic Specialist Plaster, Wallpaper, Granite Worktops, Modern Furniture. The services include sprinkler, air-conditioning and very exciting lighting to create the different moods with the treatment areas.

A feature of the project is the curved marble central staircase. The project is complimented externally by a decked roof garden at first floor and external Jacuzzi set in a landscaped garden.

JJ Rhatigan & Company Project Overview