

Client Name :
Sisters of Mercy

Architect:
O'Neill O'Malley

Quantity Surveyor:
Peter F. Costello

Duration:
37 weeks / 9 months.
Nov 2010 – July 2011

Contract Value:
1.85m

St. Vincent's Convent, Galway

Description

Refurbishment of an existing 32 bedroom convent into a 26 bedroom with en-suites and ancillary accommodation, including demolition of an existing staircore, doors, windows, internal walls, floor and ceiling finishes, fitted furniture, sanitary ware, roof finishes, mechanical and electrical services. Installation of new internal walls, floor and ceiling finishes, doors, windows, roof, fitted & loose furniture, and mechanical and electrical services.

Construction of a new fire escape stair core on the east elevation and the construction of a new glazed extension on the western elevation.

Also includes for re-pointing of stonework to chapel façade and all associated site works.

JJ Rhatigan & Company Project Overview