

Clifden Community School, Galway

The project consisted of the construction of a new, part two-storey and part three-storey post primary school, together with temporary classrooms for the duration of the works.

The new school comprised of 16 general classrooms, 2 science labs, 2 computer labs, construction studies room, art room, design & graphics, home economics room, engineering room, a multi-media lab, a staff room and all associated offices, stores and toilets.

Client
Department of Education

Architect
De Blacam & Meagher Architects

Value
€7.9 million

