

Ballymoneen Housing Development

This project involved the construction of 64 units and a community centre with a meeting room, creche and staff facilities.

There were four residential house types, including single and two storey semi-detached units. The development also included site development works such as roads and footpaths throughout the estate.

Client
Galway City Council

Architect
Galway City Council AM Cusack

Value
€7.7 million

