

IRD Office Development, Mayo

This project consisted of the construction of a new office block development of 3160m² contained in a three storey office building together with an underground car park.

The office accommodation was laid out in 15 suites to accommodate up to 15 different enterprises. The building was a structural Steel framed building with architectural wall cladding and curtain walling, Mechanical, Electrical, Ventilation and Lift Installation.

CLIENT

Kiltimagh IRD

ARCHITECT

Halligan Architects

VALUE

£4.7 million

