

Superquinn, Heuston South Quarter

This project consisted of the fit-out of the existing ground floor commercial space at the Heuston South Quarter.

It included floor, wall and ceiling finishes, internal partitions, wall linings, mechanical & electrical installations and the construction of structural steel mezzanine at the ground floor level to accommodate large plant items. The bakery area and cold room area was also fitted out.

CLIENT

Musgrave Operating Partners
Ireland

ARCHITECT

Anthony Reddy & Associates

VALUE

£2.1 million

