

Plot 24a & 24b, Brent Cross, London

Brent Cross Town Plot 24A and 24B, London, is a new-build mixed-tenure residential development located within the Brent Cross Town Masterplan. The scheme will deliver 82 affordable homes at Plot 24A and 172 market sale residential apartments at Plot 24B, alongside retail units, podium-level car parking, cycle storage, landscaping, and associated public realm works.

Located along Merchant Street within the Brent Cross Town masterplan, the development will form part of one of Europe's largest regeneration projects. The scheme will incorporate high-quality residential design, robust fire safety measures, and Gateway 2 and 3 compliance works to help create a safe, modern, and sustainable residential environment.
