

Park Inn Hotel, Mulranny

Refurbishment and extension to the old Great Southern Hotel together with the construction of 20 Holiday Apartments.

The refurbishment consisted of the retention of the entire front facade and the reconstruction of all first floors including the roof. The extension consisted of a new function room and bar, a leisure centre including a swimming pool and all external features including internal mouldings, cornices, replicated in the extension of the building.

Client
Great Western Hotels Ltd.

Architect
Quilligan Architects

Value
€12 million

