

Mixed Development with Service Station, Clifden

The project included demolition of the existing petrol station.

The project entailed reconstruction of the new forecourt with insulation of new petrol tank. The service station contains a large retail unit with grocery store, deli and hot and food service area. The works also included a basement carpark with additional works to include hard and soft landscaping.

Client
John Sweeney

Architect
Spain Coutney Doyle

Value
€3.8 million

