

Sheraton Hotel, Athlone

This project consisted of the construction of a 160 bedroom hotel, which was part of the overall development of Athlone Town Centre, which included a shopping centre, retail units, restaurants and residential units.

Comprising a tower on a two-storey plinth, the hotel accommodates 160 bedrooms, two restaurants, a bar, a generous foyer, a function room, meeting/seminar rooms, a spa and leisure centre and ancillary service areas. The basement of the building accommodates a spa and leisure centre comprising changing areas, treatment areas and a swimming pool.

Client
Gallico Developments

Architect
Murray O'Laoire Architects

Value
€50 million

