

St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford

Works comprise of the construction of a new residential care centre of approximately 7,729m² at St. Patrick's Hospital Waterford.

When complete, it will include 100 ensuite single bedrooms, a production kitchen, and patient and staff facilities. It also involves the internal and external refurbishment of the mortuary chapel- a protected structure – to form a new main entrance and foyer for the hospital and new unit.

Client
HSE South

Architect
Coady Architects

Value
€19.7 million

