

The Dargan Building & Sancton Wood Apartments

Consisting of 4 residential cores arranged around a mezzanine level courtyard there are 94 apartments in total made up of 16 one beds, 62 two beds, 19 three beds and 6 three bed duplex apartments. Many apartments are with full length balconies and feature steel storage units creating a vibrant and striking visual effect.

Client
Shorview Properties Ltd.

Architect
Reddy Architecture

Value
€47 million

The ground floor and mezzanine level retail space is accessible from the existing ground floor levels via stone steps at both the north and south elevations of the courtyard. Extensive retail and commercial space is spread over ground and lower ground floors with smaller commercial units scattered throughout.

